Makeup

We Three

I like your jeans, they really make you look so nice
And I got my reasons when you catch me glancing twice
I hope you know that baby, you are more then clothes
And all these girls dressing less from head to toe

Across the room you nearly took my breath away
With the way you move your hair so it's not in your face
Can't help myself my eyes they just gravitate
To yours as well as other things I just can't say

So don't straighten your hair, or put on your makeup
You're more then what's there, you don't need to fake love
You're more then enough, from the moment you wake up
So leave your face bare, and put away all of your makeup
All of your makeup

The night concludes your hairs falling back in your face
And I ask to move it, move it so it's back in place
And I find it rude, when you smile and turn away
Obstruct my view, and missing every word I say

Like don't straighten your hair, or put on your makeup
You're more then what's there, you don't need to fake love
You're more then enough, from the moment you wake up
So leave your face bare, and put away all of your makeup
So don't straighten your hair, or put on your makeup
You're more then what's there, you don't need to fake love
You're more then enough, from the moment you wake up
So leave your face bare, and put away all of your makeup
All of your makeup

You thought this was cute, and I thought it was too
But you never knew babe, baby how crazy I am for you
You thought this was cute and I thought it was too
But you never knew babe, baby how crazy I am for you

Oh... no no no no

Cause you're more the enough, from the moment you wake up
So leave your face bare, and put away all of your makeup
Yeah yeah...
All of your makeup...
