

Nothing Else Matters

We Three

Broken glass and letters
Names you can't remember
Promises are forever that's a lie
Jumping out of moving cars
Arguments and scars
I probably should've stayed inside

First you wanna fight me
Then you want to fuck me
You only want fake things
Making something out of nothing
We should be making lovin'
We only wanna break things

Nothing else matters (No)
I miss you when we're mad and when we're both slamming doors
Nothing else matters (No)
I miss you when we kiss and then we make up on the floor
Cause I love you even when you don't
And I love you even when you won't
Cause nothing else matters
Nothing else matters

I've fought with you on Venmo
I've fought with you on the telephone
I've fought in front of your family and your friends
I jumped out of your moving car
Think I already said that part
Thought it was worth hearing it again, I guess

First you wanna fight me
Then you want to fuck me
You only want fake things
Making something out of nothing
We should be making lovin'
We only wanna break things

Nothing else matters (No)
I miss you when we're mad and when we're both slamming doors
Nothing else matters (No)
I miss you when we kiss and then we make up on the floor
Cause I love you even when you don't
And I love you even when you won't
Cause nothing else matters
Nothing else matters

Cause baby you're all that matters
Cause baby, you're all that matters
Nothing else matters
(Jumping out of cars, arguments and scars)
Nothing else matters
(I know I probably should've stayed inside)
Nothing else matters
(But it doesn't really matter
Cause you're all that really matters yeah
Cause baby you're all that matters)
