

You Space And Time

We Three

It doesn't make sense and it doesn't feel right
But baby that's fine, baby that's fine
Let's fantasize for a little while
'Bout a different life with different occupations
No manipulation, different situation
But if I'm being honest I think we might be dreaming
But it don't make sense, it don't seem right
But I guess that's life hope to see you in the next one

I'm sorry that we couldn't figure it out in this one

It doesn't make sense you, space, or time
But baby that's fine I still just believe it
Time, time, time baby I don't wanna waste it
Cause I'm I'm I'm wanting to change my situation
So I don't have to leave you in this life or the next yeah
It's only you I won't settle for second best
But it don't make sense, it don't seem right
But I guess that's life hope to see you in the next one

I'm sorry that we couldn't figure it out in this one

Cause maybe then we would've bought a house by now, by now
Maybe then I would've proposed to you by now
Maybe then you could've loved me like you don't know how to
Maybe then, maybe then, maybe then, maybe then babe

It doesn't make sense and it doesn't feel right
I'm sorry that we couldn't figure it out in this one
It doesn't make sense you, space, or time
It doesn't make sense and it doesn't feel right
I'm sorry that we couldn't figure it out in this one
It doesn't make sense you, space, or time
I'm sorry that we couldn't figure it out in this life
