

Over This

We Were Sharks

You told me to hold close
When I wanted to let go
You said think of everywhere you could be right now
I said I'd rather be anywhere else
I'd rather be anywhere else

Feels like I'm caught in between
Being nothing and novelty
You said look at all the stars you could see right now
I said I feel like they're burning out

Losing my grip and I'm tripping over myself
Slipping away and I feel like becoming someone else
Because of you
Because of you
I'm getting pretty sick of all this petty shit

I think I'm fucking over this, over this, I
I think I'm fucking over this, over this
Because of you
Because of you
I'd rather be anywhere else
I'd rather be anywhere else

It's safe to say that
It's like running from a heart attack
You said you could find a way to get through this spell, oh no
I said why bother, it's already hell
I'm getting pretty sick of all this petty shit

I think I'm fucking over this, over this, I
I think I'm fucking over this, over this
Because of you
Because of you
I'd rather be anywhere else
I'd rather be anywhere else

Losing my grip and I'm tripping over myself
Slipping away and I feel like becoming someone else
Because of you
Because of you
I'm getting pretty sick of all this
I'm getting pretty sick of all this petty shit

I think I'm fucking over this, over this, I
I think I'm fucking over this, over this
Because of you
Because of you
I'd rather be anywhere else
I'd rather be anywhere else
