I'm in a cave
My mind's erased
I'm in a cave
I thought I was strong
I was just bouncing along
Across and over my guitar
I thought I was strong

I was just bouncing along
Across and over my guitar
I ruined everything
And I blame myself
Because there's no one else
For me to blame
I've got to start again
I've got to start again
