

Alone Again

Weathers

I feel betrayed by all my friends
I'm so afraid of who I am
I get jealous or something like that
Smile at me while stabbing my back, yeah
You slip away, I'm alone again

On Saturdays, I'm tryna hang
But my phone is dryer than the sand
In LA, where it never rains
Then I, and then I, and then I, and then I
Get inside my head, where it always rains
I'm alone again, just like everyday

I feel betrayed by all my friends
I'm so afraid of who I am
I get jealous or something like that
Smile at me while stabbing my back, yeah
You slip away, I'm alone again

Am I good enough? Am I out of touch?
I'm getting older all the time
All my friends, have better friends
And I'm always left behind
Inside my head, where it always rains
I'm alone again, just like everyday

I feel betrayed by all my friends
I'm so afraid of who I am
I get jealous or something like that
Smile at me while stabbing my back, yeah
You slip away, I'm alone again

I feel betrayed by all my friends
I'm so afraid of who I...
I get jealous or something like that
Smile at me while stabbing my back, yeah
You slip away, I'm alone again
I'm alone again
I'm alone again
