

Be Warned

Wednesday 13

Now you children gather round and listen. Listen good. The story I'm about to tell ya I don't tell too often. Fact is, I don't tell it at all... anymore. Last time I told this story a couple folks went out and got themselves killed. Now, the only reason I'm telling ya now, is because you're my family. And I gotta protect you. But you gotta know that there's something out there. I don't know who, or what it is. But it drives a long, black hearse. And it's waiting for people. It's just out there waiting. There was a little nursery rhyme folks would laugh and joke about, but... I ain't gonna repeat it. But the one thing I will tell ya; when that hearse comes by, whatever you do, don't you dare... don't you dare let it hear you laugh.
