

Hell is Coming

Wednesday 13

The sweet taste of revenge
Oh where do I begin
My hatred for you is slowly
Starting to come unhinged
There are things in life
That we all walk away and don't think twice
And then there's the motherfuckers
That make you wanna kill 'em all with a knife

Hell is coming
No where to run
Hell is coming
For everyone
Hell is coming
Now you know it's true
Hell is coming
Motherfucker and it's coming for you

Yeah you
Now welcome to your doom
To put a bullet in your head
No that would be to soon
Now let's begin
This long night of revenge
Your suffering won't be slow
No, it's never gonna end

Hell is coming
No where to run
Hell is coming
For everyone
Hell is coming
Now you know it's true
Hell is coming
Motherfucker and it's coming for you

Hell is coming
No where to run
Hell is coming
For everyone
Hell is coming
Now you know it's true
Hell is coming
Motherfucker and it's coming for you
