

No Apologies

Wednesday 13

Well, I said what I said and I meant it
Go back to your god damn planet

And no, I won't apologise
Cause you're the one to blame
Oh, you're such a shame!

You're a victim and you're always right
You never had a clue!
Now we're all laughing, cause the joke it's on you!

I've got no apologies
You won't hear sorry from me
So, hang your head in misery
I've got no apologies!

Now I just don't understand it
Why you're so goddamn pathetic

And you will never realise
That you're the one to blame
And no one wants to play your games
Yeah, your stupid fucking games!

You're a victim and you're always right
You never had a clue!
Now we're all laughing, cause the joke it's on you!

I've got no apologies
You won't hear sorry from me
So, hang your head in misery
I've got no apologies!

You're a victim and you're always right
You never had a clue!
Now we're all laughing, cause the joke it's on you!
And now the fuckin' joke it's on you!

I've got no apologies
You won't hear sorry from me
So, hang your head in misery
I've got no apologies!

I've got, no! I've got, no!
I've got, no! I've got, no!
No apologies for you!
