

When the Devil Commands

Wednesday 13

All in the name of the evil one
The great deceiver, the blackest sun
The serpents path now it leads the way
Now bow our heads and let us pray!

The devil made me do it, I'll do it again
And hell awaits for you my friend
The devil made me do it, I'll do it again
Forgive me father now I am sin

Hail Satan, tell me your demands
666, when the devil commands!

Hail Satan, tell me your demands
666, when the devil commands!

All in the name of blasphemy
And when the devil speaks, he speaks to me
Now go and shake your crucifix
And shake it till you're fucking sick!

The devil made me do it, I'll do it again
And hell awaits for you my friend
The devil made me do it, I'll do it again
Forgive me father now I am sin

Hail Satan, tell me your demands
666, when the devil commands!

Hail Satan, tell me your demands
666, when the devil commands!

Hail Satan, tell me your demands
666, when the devil commands!

Hail Satan, tell me your demands
666, when the devil commands!

Hail Satan, tell me your demands
666, when the devil commands!

Hail Satan, tell me your demands
666, when the devil commands!
