

You're so Hideous

Wednesday 13

You're so hideous

How many more have to die
From staring you right into your eyes
Your looks are like a bullet to the head
One look and now we're all dead

Just put me outta my misery
I feel the noose getting tighter on me
Your touch of evil, your so grotesque
Your looks that kill got you so obsessed
Just beware the stare into her eyes

You're so hideous, so fucking hideous
You're so hideous, so fucking hideous

Now run for cover
Cause she's turning motherfuckers to stone
And she's the worst thing that I've seen
And I've seen a lot of hideous things

Just put me outta my misery
I feel the noose getting tighter on me
Your touch of evil, your so grotesque
Your looks that kill got you so obsessed
Just beware the stare into her eyes

You're so hideous, so fucking hideous
You're so hideous, so fucking hideous

You're so hideous, so fucking hideous
You're so hideous, so fucking hideous

You're so hideous, so fucking hideous
You're so hideous, so fucking hideous

You're so hideous
