

Candy Breath

Wednesday

Broken nose piercer
Rotting away in to-go containers
Guzzle it down at midnight
In the fridge light

Gather 'round the fighting cage
Fueling the tired fire, flame

Scatter like cockroaches
Through the dusty door
You opened up a portal
Into your sicko world

Bitten through the reigns
Surrounded by my sh-sh-sh-sh-shame
They'll fight over your body

Drag you to the shore
Whether or not they know it
Everyone's divorced

Dragging through the mud
Mired in your candy breath
Your candy breath
