Underneath

Wednesday

Oh, underneath
What's underneath?
Oh, underneath
What's under nothing?

You like men whose brains destroy them
I'm the one who dies when you drink poison
Smoke was coming from the engine
Your alarm went off this morning

Oh, underneath
What's underneath?
Oh, underneath
What's under nothing?

I like the way you say you miss me
Say it standing next to me, I
Like the way you say you miss me
Say it standing next to me
I fell asleep at the parade
But I dreamed of it for weeks
I like to close my eyes and watch
The shade change shape

Oh, underneath
What's underneath?
Oh, underneath
What's under nothing?

You like men whose brains destroy them
I'm the one who dies when you drink poison
Smoke was coming from the engine
Your alarm went off this morning

We were standing in the parking lot
When we watched the world stop, I
Finally got to the front, but
Neither of us were tall enough
