

Stranger

Weekly

I'm sorry if I said something that hurt your feelings
Well, I'm trying my best
But sometimes it's hard to understand you
I feel like I'm walking on eggshells

And I'm tryna be a shoulder
You can cry on
When you're so sick of yourself
When you get a little angry
You can call me
We can laugh it out again
Can't bear the rainy weather?
Just wear me like a sweater
All I want is for you to feel better

Now, I'm stuck with a stranger
I can't go on any longer
All I want is to hold ya
So please come back 'cause I need ya
I need ya (I need ya)
Now, I'm stuck with a stranger
I can't go on any longer
All I want is to hold ya
So please come back 'cause I need ya
I need ya (I need ya)

The circles underneath your eyes are dark and that's okay
You should get some rest
And I don't have a PhD in mental health
I can tell you're a little upset

And I'm tryna be a shoulder
You can cry on
When you're so sick of yourself
When you get a little angry
You can call me
We can laugh it out again
Can't bear the rainy weather?
Just wear me like a sweater
All I want is for you to feel better

Now, I'm stuck with a stranger
I can't go on any longer
All I want is to hold ya
So please come back 'cause I need ya
I need ya (I need ya)
Now, I'm stuck with a stranger
I can't go on any longer
All I want is to hold ya
So please come back 'cause I need ya
I need ya (I need ya)
I need ya

Now, I'm stuck with a stranger
