

Beach Boys

Weezer

Heard that before
Uh

The sun won't shine tonight
Metro screaming by
Walking with the Mexicans
Should I call an ambulance?

We need a melody
A gorgeous four part harmony
So it all makes sense
There's gotta be more than this

Everyone wants to be cooler than everyone else
It's a hip hop world
And we're the furniture

Let's get out of the city
Let me tell you about a band I loved
When I was a west-side kid, mmm

Turn it up
It's the Beach Boys
Singing out in a sweet voice
On a roll like a twist toy
Keep cranking them Beach Boys

Turn it up
It's the Beach Boys
Making my eyes get moist
Hold 'em up at gunpoint
Keep cranking them Beach Boys

Whatcha wanna do tonight?
I'll make it all happen
Mixing up OJ
And champagne
Cooler than the ice capades

We need a leader someone to tell us what to do
To raise the bar
To make it rain

We're gonna go caroling in Ocean Park
If you know the notes sing from your heart
'Cause it's gonna be fun

I'm a remarkable guy
I keep you trying new things
I keep you young

Turn it up
It's the Beach Boys
Singing out in a sweet voice
On a roll like a twist toy

Turn it up
It's the Beach Boys

They'll be there when you wake up
You're soothing midnight mantra

It's the Beach Boys

I've heard that before
But I want to hear it again (I wanna hear it over and over)
But I want to hear it over and over again

Fellas, I have 3000 words to say
Quit screaming and start singing from your hearts, huh?

Turn it up
It's the Beach Boys
Singing out in a sweet voice
On a roll like a Rolls Royce

Turn it up
It's the Beach Boys

They'll be there when you wake up
Your soothing midnight mantra

Turn it up
It's the Beach Boys

We don't have a blend
Can we have a chord? Just a chord? Like we used to when you had clear record s okay?
Lets go, lets go, lets go
