

Gravity Will Bring You Down

Weezer

Chained up in your dungeon
The conquistadors have clearly won
You're turning into a skeleton
Mice munchin' on your tasty bum
I bet you wish you never fucked
With the Spanish Inquisition
Some battles you will never win
Some laws you just can't break

Not every man is a Superman
Not every girl is a Supergirl
So cut your coupons while you can
Gravity will bring you down

There must have been some Einsteins
Designing that first aeroplane
They kicked some ass in the Ivy League
Acing LSATs and the GREs
But the Hindenburg crashed on the ground
Blew up like an atom bomb
The children cried as they looked on
Watching their daddies burn

Not every man is a Superman
Not every girl is a Supergirl
So cut your coupons while you can
Gravity will bring you down

Learn not to care
Learn not to strive
Learn not to hurt at all
Learn not to try
Learn not to weep
When you eventually fall

Not every man is a Superman
Not every girl is a Supergirl
So cut your coupons while you can
Gravity will bring you down
