

What's The Good Of Being Good

Weezer

Walking in these hallowed hallways
Bearded masters on the wall
Winning one more shiny medal
I can still hear the applause

I won it all many times over
But I'm still not satisfied
Yes, it feels like somethings missing
If there's no one by my side

What's the good of being good
When there's no one who will appreciate
And so you might as well accept the fact
You're gonna finish last
You're gonna finish last
(What is the good of being good)

No loving wife to smile at me
No daughter to dote on with pride
'Til the day I give her away
With a tear drop in my eye

No clever son to learn my teaching
And to try his very best
To be grateful for my solace
When he cannot pass the test

What's the good of being good
When there's no one who will appreciate
And so you might as well accept the fact
You're gonna finish last
You're gonna finish last
(What is the good of being good)

Tell me what's the good of being good
When your best friend stabs your back
And he lies to the people
And drags your good name through the mud
Could you tell me what's the good of being good
When your best friend steals your woman
And down on the cushion
He drags your good name through the mud

What's the good of being good
When there's no one who will appreciate
And so you might as well accept the fact
You're gonna finish last
You're gonna finish last
(What is the good of being good)