Because you're so beautiful
Because you're so pretty
I'm just only you

Keep holding me tight
Like that
You're my living room

Even when the wind blows, we freeze right here
Let's keep telling each other lots of stories
Yeah I
Feel like feel like feel like butterfly
You resemble a butterfly

You and I, life is like
A miracle, let's go set up a monumental tombstone
Tonight

La La Twilight
Blossoming even in the darkness
Huruttutttutttutttu
Humming so naturally
With our own stars
I'm your eternal volunteer
It's an extreme melodrama

Tell me how to make a simple way
You're a brightly shining star in the twilight
I've placed you
In that picturesque blue light

Huruttutttutttu huruttutttutttu Ay
I'll let you hear my heart Bluetooth

I have the eyes to see you
Trapped in our own star
Counting them one by one
Here and there, anywhere
Go with the flow, there are no rules, no fakeness
Make it a rule
After I tell you my feelings
I'm filling you up with myself
It is like a Twilight
The smoke of deceit inside of misunderstandings
Will scatter away with the red horizon
Scattering away is your moonlight

Past the hill
Where it beautifully blossoms
Feel like feel like feel like butterfly
You resemble a butterfly

You and I, life is like
Tonight

La La Twilight
Huruttutttutttutttu
Humming so naturally
With our own stars

Tell me how to make a simple way
I've placed you

In that picturesque blue light

I'm dreaming

As I've fallen into those eyes that look at me

Drawing it out hundreds of times

Such a beautiful ending

Following the bright line of starlight

I feel like feel like feel like butterfly

Flapping wings

La La Twilight

Blossoming even in the darkness

Huruttuttuttuttuttu

Humming so naturally

With our own stars

I'm your eternal volunteer

It's an extreme melodrama

Tell me how to make a simple way

I've placed you
