A kid who was especially scared of the dark
Why was I so scared right before I went to sleep?
But when I heard your voice over the phone
I felt at ease

It's our some story, a secret we shared
Suddenly those memories faded
One step two step

My shadow grew as much as my height
You've resembled me, I know
We always walked together, oh you are
My never-changing, my best friend
Always in that same place

Who cares if we fight, we'll make up soon anyway
Throwing jokes at each other as if nothing's wrong
It's funny, time keeps passing
But how come things don't change?

It's our some story
Memories that built up countlessly
One step two step

My shadow grew as much as my height
You've resembled me, I know
We always walked together, oh you are

My never-changing, my best friend

On this path that we stood on without preparation
We don't know the end but it's alright

My shadow grew as much as my height
You've resembled me, I know
We always walked together, oh you are
My never-changing, my best friend

My never-changing, my oh
One step two step
Always in that same place
