

Slow Down

Wendy Rule

Faith is beyond all reason
Its not like I can find it when I want to
Or will it away

Everything has its reason
There was a time I knew where I was going
And what I should say

Slow down
And focus your eyes on the dark horizon

Faith is a world of dreaming
Seeking the path to where I should be going
The infinite Now

Everything has its meaning
Omens are wisdom waiting to be captured
Unravelled somehow

Slow down
And focus your eyes on the dark horizon
