

The Window

Wendy Rule

Calling
Something is calling
Through cracks of daylight
Something is calling
If I
If I don't' close my eyes
Then I won't see it
And it won't call me and question

What do you see at the window?
What is light, what is shadow?
What is past, what is yet to be?
What is complete?
And what has all gone wrong?

Lately
I don't like sleeping
I'm waking tired
I'm waking tired
If I
If I don't close my eyes
Then I won't see it
And it won't call me
And question
