

World Between Worlds

Wendy Rule

Daylight
Has found me mourning me love of the night
All is not now as it seems
You are in the liminal world of my dreams
Only the darkened moon
Knows I'm in love with you
I am in love with you

Savour the sorrow divine
That finds me willing your world into mine
Moon in eclipsing the sun
And now the wounding of love has begun
Cursing the calling day
Taking my love away
Taking my love away

World between Worlds is calling me
