

Yeah

Make it worth it, baby

Am I worth it?

I know you got plans, but stay with me instead
If they gettin' mad, just blame it on the sex
We be in the bed, yeah, we've become a tax
A thousand thread countless, ah
Maybe it's a sure thing, you ain't gotta guess
If you hear the phone ring, you ain't gotta check
Put that shit on silent, let me do the rest
I'll do the rest, yeah

You turn me on
Yeah, the silence feels so good
Just screaming 'cause
'Cause my body ain't be ready
Should be holdin' steady, yeah
There ain't nothing wrong
Don't complicate what's good
Think we're onto somethin'
Let's go disappear just like we should

And turn it off
And we're good, until the morn'
And we could ignore 'em all
Ain't nobody know our location
We private more
So we're good, until the morn'
Yeah, we could ignore 'em all
I love it when you're down with me to

DND, all we need is privacy
You and me in hotel sheets
DND me, babe, me, babe

Slide me to the moon and buy me roses
Or take me to the room, whatever's closest
What you want is what I want
Hope I'm gon' be there when you hit bottom
Who you're gonna call with your problems?
I'm the one
Baby, I'm the one, yeah

There ain't nothing wrong
Don't complicate what's good
Think we're onto somethin'
Let's go disappear just like we should

And turn it off
And we're good, until the morn'
And we could ignore 'em all
Ain't nobody know our location
We private more
So we're good, until the morn'
Yeah, we could ignore 'em all
I love it when you're down with me to

DND, all we need is privacy
You and me in hotel sheets
DND me, babe, me, babe
DND, all we need is privacy
You and me in hotel sheets
DND me, babe, me, babe
