

BORED

WesGhost

I'm vacant, everybody want a piece, just take it
I'm the only one I put my faith in
I'm just counting my bones in the basement
I'm dead now, eyes closed, I be keeping my head down
Too many people, too stressed out
Ain't nobody left to impress now

Are you not amused, my darling?
I'm not really there

I might look crazy, but I'm just bored
How could you blame me? I want more
I know you hate me behind closed doors
Is this entertaining? 'Cause I'm so bored

Just look me in the eyes, I'm barely alive
Just look me in the eyes, I'm barely alive

I don't wanna fake the conversations anymore
Chase shadows of you lying on the floor
I hate the things I used to love before
And I can't hide it

Are you not amused, my darling?
I'm not really there

I might look crazy, but I'm just bored
How could you blame me? I want more
I know you hate me behind closed doors
Is this entertaining? 'Cause I'm so bored

Just look me in the eyes, I'm barely alive
Just look me in the eyes, I'm barely alive
Just look me in the eyes, I'm barely alive
Just look me in the eyes, I'm barely alive
