DEADBEAT

WesGhost

Woah, I'm such a deadbeat, baby
I probably never stood a chance
With a girl like you

I drive alone in my car without a seatbelt on
I don't care if I crash, 'cause you're still gone
I turn the headlights off, going fast in the dark
I turn the radio up, while I'm falling apart

Woah, I'm such a deadbeat, baby
I probably never stood a chance
With a girl like you
Woah, I'm such a deadbeat, baby
It's time for me to face the ugly truth
I'm no good for you

(For you)

Say you'd never do me wrong
Not surprised you let me go
Saw it coming all along
You were better off alone
Love is a drug and I'm having withdrawals
You wanted everything or nothing at all
But I don't blame you, it's all my fault

Woah, I'm such a deadbeat, baby
I probably never stood a chance
With a girl like you
Woah, I'm such a deadbeat, baby
It's time for me to face the ugly truth
I'm no good for you
