

Yuh

My heart's in pieces
Baby, let's sleep in, we can just pretend
When that daylight creeps in
We can make peace with both our demons

I know that it's bad timing, I just came back from hell
But ever since I saw you, I don't want nobody else
And I don't wanna hurt you, I'd rather hurt myself
But ever since I saw you, I don't want nobody else

But I can be a dirtbag sometimes
Probably make a mess out of your life
Make it hurt so good, but I won't lie
Can't be yours, but you're mine
Goth girl, shawty, with the pretty eyes
Everything about you hits right
But I can be a dirtbag sometimes
Can't be yours, but you're mine

I don't trust these feelings
When I'm staring at the ceiling
With your body on top of me
You can crash here, hope you never leave

I know that it's bad timing, I just came back from hell
But ever since I saw you, I don't want nobody else
And I don't wanna hurt you, I'd rather hurt myself
But ever since I saw you, I don't want nobody else

But I can be a dirtbag sometimes
Probably make a mess out of your life
Make it hurt so good, but I won't lie
Can't be yours, but you're mine
Goth girl, shawty, with the pretty eyes
Everything about you hits right
But I can be a dirtbag sometimes
Can't be yours, but you're mine

Can't be yours, but you're mine
