And it kills me to see you, with somebody else now
Somebody else now, ah

And it kills me to see you, with somebody else now
Somebody else now, ah
It kills me to see you with somebody else

You said you'd never let me go
But goddamn, you're a liar
You got a chokehold on my soul
You set my world on fire
'Cause I'm stressed out
Going out of my head, I'm lying face down
Sinking into the bed and I black out
Hoping I could forget that you left me here to die

And it kills me to see you, with somebody else now
Somebody else now, ah
It kills me to see you, with somebody else now
Somebody else now, ah

Hop in the whip, and I'll fade in the smoke
You're just so heartless, I'm tied to your soul
You act like you don't even know me no more
Feelings expired and now I'm alone
And it kills me to see you, with somebody else

And it kills me
It kills me, it kills me
(To see you with somebody else)
And it kills me
It kills me, it kills me
