

Oh, yeah

I don't wanna FaceTime
You've been on my mind in the middle of the night
You're not like the others, yeah, they're always switching sides now
I'll be waiting for you girl whenever you decide
That you wanna slide but
I don't wanna FaceTime
Send them dirty pictures and you hope that I reply
You're not like the others, baby, but you still ain't mine
I'll be waiting for you girl whenever you decide
That you wanna slide, I don't wanna FaceTime

Don't talk, let the music set the mood right
Put a finger to your lips, I know you're tongue-tied Clock's ticking, baby, I don't wanna FaceTime
Don't you tell me that it's over, that will kill the vibe

Wait for me, but that's not fair to you
But I'd hate to let you slip away from me
'Cause you're too good to lose

I don't wanna FaceTime
You've been on my mind in the middle of the night
You're not like the others, yeah, they're always switching sides now
I'll be waiting for you girl whenever you decide
That you wanna slide but I don't wanna FaceTime
Send them dirty pictures and you hope that I reply
You're not like the others, baby, but you still ain't mine
I'll be waiting for you girl whenever you decide
That you wanna slide, I don't wanna FaceTime

Know you hate to be alone
But you know I gotta go
Lately I've been on the road
I'll hit you up when I get home
Know you wish that I was close
Blowing kisses through the phone
Time's been moving hella slow

Wait for me, but that's not fair to you
But I'd hate to let you slip away from me
'Cause you're too good to lose
(Clock's ticking, baby, I don't wanna...)

I don't wanna FaceTime
You've been on my mind in the middle of the night
You're not like the others, yeah, they're always switching sides now
I'll be waiting for you girl whenever you decide
That you wanna slide but I don't wanna FaceTime
Send them dirty pictures and you hope that I reply
You're not like the others, baby, but you still ain't mine
I'll be waiting for you girl whenever you decide
That you wanna slide I don't wanna FaceTime

La-da la-da-da da da-da-da
La-da la-da-da da da-da-da

La-da la-da-da da da-da-da-dum
(Clock's ticking baby, I don't wanna...)
I don't wanna FaceTime
La-da la-da-da da da-da-da
La-da la-da-da da da-da-da
La-da la-da-da da da-da-da-dum

I don't wanna FaceTime
You've been on my mind in the middle of the night
You're not like the others, yeah, they're always switching sides now
I'll be waiting for you girl whenever you decide
That you wanna slide but I don't wanna FaceTime
Send them dirty pictures and you hope that I reply
You're not like the others, baby, but you still ain't mine
I'll be waiting for you girl whenever you decide
That you wanna slide, I don't wanna FaceTime
