

Give me Hell, make it hurt
You're so perfect, I'm the worst
I've been bleeding out for you
I've been bleeding out for you
And I hate when you cry
Split me open, borderline
You're dramatic, it's okay
I'm an addict for the pain

Leave your mark (Leave your mark)
On my heart (On my heart)
Like tiny little papercuts
The wounds is finally closin' up

Yeah, I'd rather die
Than live without your love
'Cause life without you hurts too much
I'm not alright
Calling this a crush
'Cause I'd kill myself if I messed this up

My heart's still covered up in papercuts
Covered up in papercuts
My heart's still covered up in papercuts
Covered up in papercuts

Tell me I'm the one
Promise you won't let me go
'Cause if you're not my girl
I would probably die alone

I'm sick and tired
Of wasting all my energy
'Cause if you're not my girl
There'd be nothing left for me

Yeah, I'd rather die
Than live without your love
'Cause life without you hurts too much
I'm not alright
Calling this a crush
'Cause I'd kill myself if I messed this up

My heart's still covered up in papercuts
Covered up in papercuts
My heart's still covered up in papercuts
Covered up in papercuts
