

Hopeless
My body's tied to you
When you hurt yourself, you hurt me too
I know you're cheating
Darling, why're you so blue?
I'd destroy the world for you

Sad eyes and a runny nose, my dear
Wish I could dry up all those tears
You got a tummy ache, keeping you awake
I can see it on your face
Cold heart, can't feel my love, my dear
Those scars don't scare me, I'm still here
You've got a tummy ache from the drugs you take
Tryna numb the past away
I hate to see you fall apart
Somebody hurt you, left a mark
Wish I could put you back together again
But it's just too, just too hard
I hate to see you fall apart
When you fall apart, I fall apart

Strung out
In the bathroom
And I could tell she's not alright
She's just a girl, that's telling lies
Sticking her tongue out
Before the picture
The way she hides behind the smile
But underneath she wants to die
Nobody knows, why she's alone
She hates herself from the secrets she hold

Sad eyes and a runny nose, my dear
Wish I could dry up all those tears
You got a tummy ache, keeping you awake
I can see it on your face
Cold heart, can't feel my love, my dear
Those scars don't scare me, I'm still here
You've got a tummy ache from the drugs you take
Tryna numb the past away
I hate to see you fall apart
Somebody hurt you, left a mark
Wish I could put you back together again
But it's just too, just too hard
I hate to see you fall apart
When you fall apart, I fall apart

Sad eyes and a runny nose, my dear
Wish I could dry up all those tears
Cold heart, can't feel my love, my dear
Those scars don't scare me, I'm still here
You've got a tummy ache from the drugs you take
Tryna numb the past away

Numb the past away
You got a tummy ache from the drugs you take

Ooh, eyes don't lie, the flames shot high
Cold sweatin through the night, I stay right beside you
Ooh, it's so right, off the Xanny, off the 9s
Oh, it's just another high
As she put me in my dark age
Staring into sad eyes
While you fucked me in the darkness
When you fall apart, I fall apart
