

Always in my mind, can I see you tonight?
I'll meet you anywhere you'd like, I'll be over in five
If it's only for the night, baby, is it alright?
If I pretend that you're mine
Such a pretty little lie

Twist my spine 'til I'm paralyzed
So I never leave your side
Hold me tight, can't leave you behind
Such a pretty little lie (Yeah), such a pretty little lie (Yeah)

I know just what you like, you know I hit it right
And every time we (Uh), send them shivers down your spine
Attention on you like Adderall, no parachute, so I had to fall
You and me, we compatible, we tryna keep it real casual

I don't know if you're the one
All I know is how to run
I don't know if you're the one
All I know is...

You're always in my mind, can I see you tonight?
I'll meet you anywhere you'd like, I'll be over in five
If it's only for the night, baby, is it alright?
If I pretend that you're mine
Such a pretty little lie, such a pretty little lie

Twist my spine 'til I'm paralyzed
So I never leave your side
Hold me tight, can't leave you behind
Such a pretty little lie, a pretty little lie

Now I can't focus on anything except for you
Hands on your neck and it feel like a noose
Bending you over and bending the truth
You know that I'm sober, but, I'm in the mood
Talking to you like everyday
With you in mind, that's okay
You look good, now I'm on the way
Can't wait to make them legs shake

I don't know if you're the one
All I know is how to run
I don't know if you're the one
All I know is...

You're always in my mind, can I see you tonight?
I'll meet you anywhere you'd like, I'll be over in five
If it's only for the night, baby, is it alright?
If I pretend that you're mine
Such a pretty little lie, such a pretty little lie

Twist my spine 'til I'm paralyzed
So I never leave your side
Hold me tight, can't leave you behind
Such a pretty little lie, a pretty little lie

Such a pretty little
Such a pretty little
Such a pretty little lie

You're always in my mind, can I see you tonight?
I'll meet you anywhere you'd like, I'll be over in five
If it's only for the night, baby, is it alright?
If I pretend that you're mine
Such a pretty little lie, such a pretty little lie
