

I Won't

Wet

I wait for the love to make me invisible
Always looking up that way I'm unchangeable
I almost forgot to say I'm unbearable

All of the stars all of the moon they don't compare
Got nothing on you so when I'm gone know that it's true

To say its enough would make it invisible
Fall back on your luck that left you unchangeable
I almost forgot to say I'm unbearable

All of the stars all of the moon they don't compare
Nothing on you so when I'm gone know that's a true
All of the stars all of the moon they don't compare
Nothing on you so when I'm gone know that's a true

But I won't leave the last light on
No I won't tell you its my fault
No I won't Give up what I want for you
I won't Leave the last light on
No I won't tell you its my fault
No I won't give up what I want for you
