

This one might break me
This moon might make me
I'm on my knees how'd I get so weak
This one might break me
This moon might change me
I'm on my knees how'd I get so weak

Morning comes just in time
I spent all night
Burning and blazing
But relief comes each morning
And I save the good light
Silent story stand up for me
Heaven knows I've tried

In my life I'll remember
I've made mistakes
I've made mistakes
In my life I'll remember
Your head on my pillow
When I'm out on my own

Let us let us let us embrace
Let us let us let us embrace

I know the love we share
So baby please believe
I'm doing all I can
I know we ought to try

This one might break me
This moon might make me
I'm on my knees how'd I get so weak
This one might break me
This moon might change me
I'm on my knees how'd I get so weak

So weak
So weak

In my life I'll remember
I've made mistakes
I've made mistakes
In my life I'll remember
Your head on my pillow
When I'm out on my own

This one might break me
This moon might make me
I'm on my knees how'd I get so weak
This one might break me
This moon might change me
I'm on my knees how'd I get so weak
