

Turn Away

Wet

First light, new skin, bring amber dawn
Like a warning
Close my eyes so I won't see what I've done wrong
Turn away, turn away when you need me more, more
Regrets creep in, what have I done?
Oh, but you were leaving

You were always, you were always leaving
Now I'm gone, you come back
Come back to me believing

So why'd you say nothing at all?
You leave me to figure out what went wrong
Going on and on about nothing at all
Turn away, turn away when I need you more

Do you know how many times I've been you?
Been you?
To someone who cares half as much as I do
And I do
Turn away, turn away, turn away when I need to
I needed to
Take one wrong step for I'm back to you
But all at once it comes back to me

You were always, you were always leaving
Now I'm gone, you come back
Come back to me believing

So why'd you say nothing at all?
You leave me to figure out what went wrong
Going on and on about nothing at all
Turn away, turn away when I need you more

And honestly, if we're going off
We work through this just to write a song
Going on and on about nothing at all
Turn away, turn away when I need you more
So honestly, if there's nothing wrong
We worked it out just to write a song
Going on and on about nothing at all
You turn away, turn away when I need you more
