

Turn the Lights Down Low

Wet

Turn the lights down low so that they disguise me
Let my fingers hold but not too tightly
I've been waiting so long in light so brightly
Having nothing to hold and nothing feels right here

So you're sleeping alone
You're sleeping alone
Tired of dreaming alone
You don't wanna be alone
You've been sleeping so long

Turn the lights down low so that they disguise me
Put my head on a pole, there was nothing inside me
Turn the lights down low so that no one can sit in me
I don't want to be alone
Baby, I didn't
And they say

I don't want to be alone
No one wants to be alone
I don't want to get old
I want to never get old
I don't want to be dead
No, never, no, no, no

Maybe I could be told
Maybe I could go gently
For the rest of this road
I would ride half empty
For the cost of this gold
I only got twenty
I'll go out on my own
Hands tied up, newly
For the cost of his gold
You couldn't pull me

Tired of sleeping alone
No one wants to be alone
Now, you'll never get old
You don't want to be alone
Now I'll never get old
No, no, no

Doo-doo-doo-doo-doo
So that no one can see me
Put my hands to work so I don't get antsy

Tired of sleeping alone and tired of living
Take time to hold
Not so tightly
I don't want to be alone
That's just living
I don't want to be alone
Baby, that's living
