

One Wish

wewantwraiths

They never let me in so I made this for the clubs
Gotta little spinner and it fits like a glove
Bro gon' let it rip if we don't know who you are
Hit the moving target with his head out the car

And if a nigga had one wish
I wish my niggas wasn't in jail
'Cuz the truth between you and I is
They took the fall I shoulda took it myself

Before I shot a vid I shot a wig
Hopped out with that twin pipe, I'm not gonna miss
Yo if we get the drop then we go round there
He shot a vid on his block but he got smoked round there

Heard they wanna shoot me that shit won't be easy
'Cos you can check my bootings, I done it on TV
Done it with the 12 gauge, done it with the Rambo
Ran up on him broad day, shot him in his mango (BANG)

Oh wait, you Wraiths?
All black Bentley it came with the blue suede
When your up, niggas act like you changed
Money in this duffle you dummy I'm too paid bitch

I bossed up
Knew I'd be shining my whole life before I popped off
Been in this game and this whole time I didn't stop once
I'm quitting lean for 12th time it got me fucked up (I'm quitting lean for the 12th time)

I won't kiss no bitch 'cuz she might give me a blister
She's mixing up the MD with a bit of that pink stuff
She make it clap no audience this one is the naughtiest
(Clap clap clap)
I might pay for her tit job

Girl you know I like you, ain't I making it obvious?
The next cheque that I cash I'll probably buy me a Nautilus
Never heard my hardest verse because I haven't recorded it
Imma kill that pussy call me Oscar Pistorius

If she had a wish I know she'd want me to wife her
But I'm sorry bitch you know I'm strictly married to this Lyca
50 racks in this RS we're flying doing hundred
I don't only rap, I send copper shots through jumpers

10 bed villa that's 15 bitches
He got ripped open and left with 15 stitches
No half hearts you know we been deep in it
Bought a shotgun and had to buy a G lock with it

They never let me in so I made this for the clubs
Gotta little spinner and it fits like a glove
Bro gon' let it rip if we don't know who you are
Hit the moving target with his head out the car

And if a nigga had one wish
I wish my niggas wasn't in jail
'Cuz the truth between you and I is
They took the fall I shoulda took it myself
