Why do you resent my love, my love
I see nobody but you
That's why these bitches won't get no love, no love
I don't think it'll be the same
I seen a change in your eyes
You're a baddie in disguise
And you don't cry in real life and that's why
I can't tell if you're mine
Why do you always question us?
I know you resent my love, my love
I see nobody but you
That's why these bitches won't get no love, no love
I don't think it'll be the same
I seen a change in your eyes
You're a baddie in disguise
And you don't cry in real life and that's why
I can't tell if you're mine
Why do you always question us?

Pain, I seen the raining in your eyes
Couldn't say the reason, why?
I know you hate it, when you cry baby
You cry-baby, hate it when you cry
But now, ill probably drive by baby
Said our goodbyes, and saying hi now baby
Left the club crying outside while raining
Had to pull up, tell you get into the ride
You came in shining star, doggying you all night
Just wipe your tears, I've never seen a demon cry
Oh my oh my, oh my
You're an angel in the dark, look in your eyes
Real love, I don't think you even knew what real was
If I pull up it's a movie, Steven Spielberg, it hurts you
You lost out on a real one, don't feel love

Why do you resent my love, my love
I see nobody but you
That's why these bitches won't get no love, no love
I don't think it'll be the same
I seen a change in your eyes
You're a baddie in disguise
And you don't cry in real life and that's why
I can't tell if you're mine

Pain in your eyes, we co-existing, go inside
All them times, I thought you're mine
I should of known it was lie

Oh my oh my, oh my
Real love, I got people around me, I never feel love
We addicted to paper, we chasing millions
I'm the city's most rated, I'm on the billboard
We done now, It ain't working
But I'm up now, I can buy you purses
Where's the love now, I think I deserve it
I guess its done now, nothings really worth it
How can you be someone
If you need someone and nobody but you
And the streets no love-e-e, I'm still waiting on you

Why do you resent my love, my love
I see nobody but you
That's why these bitches won't get no love, no love
I don't think it'll be the same
