

Used To

Hooyo said you can do it, just get your mind on So I had to stay focused and get my grind on I weren't given no shoulder that I could cry on Living life on the edge until I can find one
All this codeine got me too tired to sleep, yeah
Been out so long, I feel too hungry to eat, yeah
Tryna be a goat, but there's too much beef, yeah
Ain't no love in the streets, I gotta leave here
Tryna switch things, had to get it in by any means Kinda fucked when your close ones turn into enemies
The worst part, is I feel like they got the best of me
I lost my mind and I found out, I'm like remember me

I used to be a used to but I never got used to being what I used to be
I know niggas that will shoot you, got something to prove to
That's if you try move to me
They can't break what is broken and I can't stop until I'm frozen down from my neck to my toes
Now I feel like I'm chosen and all this weight I'm holding [?]

2 litre Sprite everyday but I'm still me, make like 15 songs a week until th ey feel me
Assassinating my character, tryna kill me, my lil bro the lil me, he gets th e real me
Done this backwards, evil shit because I'm tryna live
See these sirens creeping up, pray it's an ambulance Go no comment even though they got enough to probably charge me with Yo, what kind of life is this, you don't know how hard it is Pour my feelings on the beat, I put my heart in this Cuz these withdrawals got me withdrawn from my environment
This Smith & Wesson for protection, fuck an argument Came in the club with it, we ain't left the party since Looked in the mirror, I couldn't do this without me
Came a long way from pullin' up in them in Audi's
I need a baby, like a [?]
Keep it fair and square when she come around me

I used to be a used to but I never got used to being what I used to be
I know niggas that will shoot you, got something to prove to
That's if you try move to me
They can't break what is broken and I can't stop until I'm frozen down from
my neck to my toes
Now I feel like I'm chosen and all this weight I'm holding [?]

Making change brings on changes, I knew you'd fold on me
Somehow I knew you'd be a snitch before you told on me
I need a heater on my hip, that shit look cold on me
Talk to myself, I'm in the booth with all these jaw problems
I'm with my new hoe reminiscing 'bout my old days
I was turning back in time when we felt no pain [?], if you could, it's gone be ok
When you got charged, you went guilty and took the whole blame
I know the graveyard is where I'm gone spend my most days
Tryna stack for the habits, tryna get it both ways
I got a cold heart, tryna match it with a gold chain
But the more money we made we felt more pain

I used to be a used to but I never got used to being what I used to be
I know niggas that will shoot you, got something to prove to
That's if you try move to me
They can't break what is broken and I can't stop until I'm frozen down from
my neck to my toes
Now I feel like I'm chosen and all this weight I'm holding [?]
