

A Given Thing

Weyes Blood

Runnin' from the turning
I swore I could be good enough
It's a given thing
Sometimes our love is everlasting
It's a given thing

And I want you more, my love
That could be good enough
It's a given thing
Sometimes we confuse the dream
For one another
We're just screaming to be closer
To infinity, to love everlasting

It's not a one way street
Sometimes our love is enrapturing
And other times its just unraveling
In front of me
And it feels like we're burning
Makin' ashes of our joy

But love doesn't need to destroy
You anymore
Oh I wanna stop the war
Between the broken lovers
It's not something you gotta earn
From each other
It just comes naturally
It's there for the taking
It's a given thing
Our love everlasting

Flows out of you
Flows out of me too
And I can't tell where you end
Oh and where I begin
Oh it's a given, thing
Love everlasting
