

How's it gonna feel when you come down
You're choking on your spite
And there's no one left to fight for you
'Cause I heard you've been tasting blood
You're wasted every night
Oh you know you wasted all your rights with me

I'm better than a sweet lie
Better than a cheap night
Better than the way you drag me down to feel alive
While you're stuck on the dark side, I'll be on that new high
I don't need a bitter pill to keep me satisfied, no

I'm better than a
I'm better than a
I'm better than a
I'm better than a
I'm better than a
I'm better than a

Hope you find what you were looking for
That all your dreams come true
If they don't you know just who to blame
Whatcha gonna do when panic hits
Their claws are stuck in you
Don't look back in the rearview, I'm gone

I'm better than a sweet lie
Better than a cheap night
Better than the way you drag me down to feel alive
While you're stuck on the dark side, I'll be on that new high
I don't need a bitter pill to keep me satisfied, no

I'm better than a
I'm better than a
I'm better than a
I'm better than a
I'm better than a
I'm better than a

I'm better than a sweet lie
Better than a cheap night
Better than the way you drag me down to feel alive
While you're stuck on the dark side, I'll be on that new high
I don't need a bitter pill to keep me satisfied, no

I'm better than a
I'm better than a
I'm better than the way you drag me down to feel alive
I'm better than a
I'm better than a
I don't need a bitter pill to keep me satisfied, no
I'm better
