

Internet Quiz

WHATEVER, DAD

Took a quiz on the web
Which state do I belong in
Can I take it again?
'Cause I don't want the answer I got
I'm already there, I've already been drawn to Landscapes with quieter evenings
Less traffic, more meaning
Though it appears like a fashionable [?]
I can't deconstruct what they keep building
Ohh

Anyway, offers nothing for the rest of you
Stay behind, and in searching will I
Ever find, can regard the Subway
Everyone else is gone
Was I just here to pass your time?

Time, time
Time, Time

Took a quiz on the web
Which state do I belong in
Can I take it again?
'Cause I don't want the answer I got
I tried to refresh but the link was broken
