

Baby, I'll let you run away
Cause I love the chase
I'll follow you every fucking day
Just to see your face
No one can get in my way
That'd be a mistake
I don't care what you say
You're mine to take

You cut the corner now you're running down the alley way
(You cut the corner now you're running down the alley way)
You hear the sirens but they don't hear you
(You hear the sirens but they don't hear you)
We splash in puddles the whole way I hate running in the rain
(We splash in puddles the whole way I hate running in the rain)
You turn around and see I'm coming for you
(You turn around and see I'm coming for you)

Don't fall girl, don't fall
Baby, if you do it'd be the end of it all
Who you gonna call girl who you gonna call?
There's no one there for you
Your backs against the wall girl
Backs against the wall
I'm catching up to you my darling
Why you tryna stall girl why you tryna stall
It's the end for you my darling

Baby, I'll let you run away
Cause I love the chase
I'll follow you every fucking day
Just to see your face
No one can get in my way
That'd be a mistake
I don't care what you say
You're mine to take
Baby, I'll let you run away
Cause I love the chase
I'll follow you every fucking day
Just to see your face
No one can get in my way
That'd be a mistake
I don't care what you say
You're mine to take
