

Baby, why you look so scared?
(Baby, why you look so scared)
Don't run away, babe, just come here
(Don't run away, babe, just come here)

Who the fuck you think you're talking to?
(You're talking to)
It's been a while now
I've been watching you
(Been watching you)
I watch you comb your hair and brush your teeth
I watch you talk on the phone
And I watch you sleep

Baby, why you look so scared?
(Baby, why you look so scared)
Don't run away, babe, just come here
(Don't run away, babe, just come here)
You're all mine, I'll never share
(You're all mine, I'll never share)
I run my fingers thru your hair
(I run my fingers thru your hair)

Yeah, I'll never stop
Not until I have you here in my arms
You can call the cops
(You can call the cops)
But they can't catch what they can't outrun

Who the fuck you think you're talking to?
(You're talking to)
It's been a while now
I've been watching you
(Been watching you)
I watch you comb your hair and brush your teeth
I watch you talk on the phone
And I watch you sleep

Yeah girl, you know that I'm coming for you
Don't invite your friends or I'll get them too
Yeah, call your boyfriend
Tell me, what's he gonna do?
When I'm done with him, I'm all on you

Baby, why you look so scared?
(Baby, why you look so scared)
Don't run away, babe, just come here
(Don't run away, babe, just come here)
You're all mine
I'll never share
(You're all mine, I'll never share)
I run my fingers thru your hair
(I run my fingers thru your hair)
