The weekend welcomes me with open arms
Sunlight filters through a half-drawn curtain
I fall down and down and down
Like a little paper boat

Ah I swim along the current
While we're splashing and laughing
The heat doesn't bother us, we're oblivious
Summer nights filled with the scent of green

A breeze blowing on my hair
Let me surrender to the breeze
Take me anywhere, even if we get lost, Babe

Stomping on top of this cloud
Floating away, baby can you come through?
Smiling until my cheeks hurt, It's funny
I want to dive deeper into our summer journey

The more I drink, the thirstier I get

I'm curious about what's next, you and I
Smiling until my cheeks hurt, It's funny
I want to dive deeper into our summer journey

The night deepens
Or maybe it's just in between
We're leaving without a word, oh yeah
Look up at the sky
The moon looks like it's about to fall
I want to fill my eyes with it

We fly along the dawn
Leaving footprints behind
The heat doesn't bother us, we're oblivious
Summer nights filled with the scent of green

A breeze blowing on my hair
Let me surrender to the breeze
Take me anywhere, even if we get lost, babe

Stomping on top of this cloud
Floating away, baby can you come through?
Smiling until my cheeks hurt, It's funny
I want to dive deeper into our summer journey

The more I drink, the thirstier I get
I'm curious about what's next, you and I
Smiling until my cheeks hurt, It's funny
