

Falling (Whethan Redo)

Whethan

I've already told ya
Can't go on like this
Red lips, a kiss, and you got me calling for ya

Guess I hardly know you
You're off limits
A classic twist
I think I'm falling for you
Think I'm falling for you

Think I'm falling for you
Think I'm falling to you
Think I'm falling for you
Think I'm falling to you

Why'm I falling for this toxic love?
Why'm I falling for this tender touch?
Why'm I falling for this toxic love?
Why'm I falling for this tender touch?
I'm still falling for ya
I'm still falling for ya

I've already told ya
Can't just wish away
Those days, you say were such a problem for ya

And every word I told ya
Lost in cliché
One fragile phrase has got me falling for ya

Why'm I falling for this toxic love?
Why'm I falling for this tender touch?
Why'm I falling for this toxic love?
Why'm I falling for this tender touch?
I'm still falling for ya
I'm still falling for ya

Godsend, moving like an angel
Pretend, suspend, read me like a fable
I know, bad blood bleeding
But I'd lie, if I tried, to play like I ain't falling

Godsend, moving like an angel
Pretend, read me like a fable
I know, bad blood bleeding
But I'd lie, if I tried, to play like I ain't falling
(Play like I ain't falling)

Why'm I falling for this toxic love?
Why'm I falling for this tender touch?
Why'm I falling for this toxic love?
Why'm I falling for this tender touch?

I've already told ya
Can't go on like this
Red lips, a kiss, and you got me calling for ya
Guess I hardly know ya

You're off limits
A classic twist
I think I'm falling for ya
