

Ocean Energy

Whethan

It's not fair, you come over my house
You're acting like it means nothing
Our signs just don't align, it's not fair
It gets later every time
I'm talking like it's nothing
But it's filling up my mind

Before you go home, and the sun comes up
I wanna tell you a secret
There's a part of me that I can't slow down
I'm on my back for a reason

I feel it everywhere I go
I feel it in the ocean of your energy
My body sinkin' like a stone
I tell myself, it's more than just a fantasy

I feel it in the ocean of your energy

It's great, I guess we feel the same
But we don't gotta label it
If you just wanna roll with it, it's fine
Or maybe just okay
I'm sick and tired of wondering
If I'm going insane

Before you go home, and the sun comes up
I wanna tell you a secret
There's a part of me that I can't slow down
I'm on my back for a reason

I feel it everywhere I go
I feel it in the ocean of your energy
My body sinkin' like a stone
I tell myself, it's more than just a fantasy

I feel it in the ocean of your energy
My body sinkin' like a stone
I tell myself, it's more than just a fantasy

I feel it everywhere I go
I feel it in the ocean of your energy
My body sinkin' like a stone
I tell myself, it's more than just a fantasy
