

I'VE SEEN IT ALL

While She Sleeps

We won't give up
We'll wait just a little more
We'll bite our tongues
This pain that we can't ignore (Whoa-oh-oh)
Tell me a reason to carry on (Whoa-oh-oh)
When all I can see is the cracks in the wall

Whoa-oh-oh
Whoa-oh-oh
Whoa-oh-oh

Maybe we're all insignificant
Pulling in different directions
To the edge of this prison
Are we living in hell?
Reluctant, never the culprit
A stick in the mud
We're so self-destructive
We're never gonna wake, never gonna wake up

Even if I say what's on my mind
I fear I waste my time
So please don't mind me
If I take my time

I've seen it all
And I've felt nothing
Don't want no more
So show me your sins
I've seen it all
And I've found nothing
When all I can see is
The cracks in the wall

No direction like the paths that I walk
Through the fading light of all we've destroyed
The siren sings that song we adore
And we won't wake up
If we can't break or scratch the surface
Redefine the words we obey
If we idolise our burdens
We're never gonna wake, never gonna wake up

Maybe we're all insignificant
Pulling in different directions
To the edge of this prison
Are we living in hell?
Our homes like galleries
We decorate the walls with our sins
Our lives so fragile
But we live like we're invincible

I've seen it all
Don't want no more
So show me your sins

And I've felt nothing
So show me your sins
I've seen it all

(We know something's wrong)
But we still carry on

We won't give up
Tell me a reason

Whoa-oh-oh
Whoa-oh-oh
Whoa-oh-oh
