

LEAVE ME ALONE

While She Sleeps

I'm sick of the bullshit, sick of the fakes
Sick of doing retakes, sick of the snakes
They've got nothing real to say
Goes blah, blah, blah, drives me insane

Relief
Arise
Disdain
Deny
Repent
Rewind
Suppress
Reprise

Change the record, overthrow
Leave me the fuck alone

We fake when we can't confide
To alleviate the feelings that we can't define
Dissipate, let the moment rewind
Differentiate the meaning from the reason why
I tried faith but failed before I found
Eternity is nothing but a hole in the ground
And there's a light behind a black cloud
A certain uncertainty, no easy way out

Leave me the fuck alone
Leave me the fuck alone
Leave me the fuck alone
Leave me the fuck alone

Imagine there's a doorway leading to wherever you need it to take
For the days where you feel like you need to escape
For the black clouds pouring over your endorphins
Imagine there's a portal in front of me
No faith in all I've found
Eternity is nothing but a hole in the ground
And there's a light behind a black cloud
A certain uncertainty no easy way out

Leave me the fuck alone
Leave me the fuck alone
Leave me the fuck alone
Leave me the fuck alone

Leave me the fuck alone
Leave me the fuck alone
Leave me the fuck alone
Leave me the fuck alone

I'm a shudderer
I let these things get under my skin
It's getting me nowhere
I'm shivering with adrenaline
Now we're descending
It's never-ending
My skin is crawling

The bass is trembling
The sun is falling
It's melancholy
My blood is boiling
The monochrome junkie
'Cause my fear is trying to tell me something I already know
I'm a shudderer
