

WILDFIRE

While She Sleeps

We were nothing

There's a wildfire breached our side of the wall
I don't wanna know, I don't wanna know
There's a wound too deep for the hospital
I'd dance in the flames for you

There is a fire, it is burning in my soul
And it's brighter than it's ever felt before

If I were a ghost
Would you still look through me?

There's a swan song playing on the radio
I don't wanna know, I don't wanna know
It goes beat by beat the empire falls
I'd dance in the flames for you

There is a fire, it is burning in my soul
And it's brighter than it's ever felt before
Illuminate the grey, in this wildfire I'll find love
Before it fades away, we eclipse this misery

Like a car-crash romance
We brace for the aftermath
I dreamt that they we escaped here
Left the surface and drifted away
The heavy low was nowhere
I couldn't see, I couldn't feel a thing

We were nothing
We were nothing
We were nothing

Like a car-crash romance
We brace for the aftermath
