WHIPPED CREAM

So never mind what happened yesterday
All your problems 'cause that's all gone
The only thing tonight that we have is us

Us

Us

Us

I was feeling kinda lethargic and I Knew I shouldn't have went to that place at all, but Whatever was in my mind, my body pushed those thoughts aside
Because it just wanted to dance
It just wanted to fly
Even had funky premonitions of me floating on daisies and tulips and paisley skies
Was it that time to trip?
Or was I just high on the sounds of the speaker that was coming out the wall?
Or was this just another dream? (Dream, dream, dream, dream, dream)
Am I even here at all?

(Dream, dream, dream, dream
Dream, dream, dream, dream
Dream, dream, dream, dream
Dream, dream, dream)

Us

(Dream, dream, dream, dream
Dream, dream, dream, dream
Dream, dream, dream, dream
Dream, dream, dream)

Us

Like I'm this invisible man who's Trying to become whole, but Scream to the top of my lungs, but
No one seems to hear me
Maybe the music was just too loud or
Maybe they just fear me
Maybe they just
Maybe they just fear me
